Information Sheet on Application for Permission to Reproduce Official Maps/Photos

All maps, plans and photographs produced by Survey and Mapping Office, Lands Department are subject to copyright protection. Barring the reproduction of open data, which should comply with its related Terms and Conditions of Use, reproduction in any forms or media using wholly or partly of these products requires prior permission. Such permission for reproduction is normally given on payment of the prescribed royalty and inclusion of an acknowledgement in the publication. Application for permission to reproduce any of these products should be made via Hong Kong Map Service 2.0 (www.hkmapservice.gov.hk).

The following information should be provided in the application:

- (i) Title, nature and format of publication;
- (ii) Name of author;
- (iii) Reference number(s) of official map/photo to be reproduced.
- (iv) Size of extract from the original map/photo and size of the reproduced copy; and
- (v) Print-run quantity.

Notes on Map Copyright and Royalty Charge

1. All maps, plans, photographs and related publications produced by the Survey & Mapping Office are subject to copyright protection. Barring the reproduction of open data, which should comply with its related Terms and Conditions of Use, reproduction, in whole or in part, is normally permitted on payment of royalty plus an acknowledgement of map source in the publication.
2. Royalty charges are determined according to print-run quantity, size of map used and the prevailing sale price of the map. The rates quoted above, based on unit sale prices of $61 (monochrome map and colour map), may be adjusted once the prices are revised.
3. Reduced rates are given for reproduction in publications with limited "shelf life" such as 60% reduction for newspaper; 40% reduction for weekly magazine. Royalty is waived for charitable usage.
4. Enquiries on map copyright should be directed to the Map Information Section at telephone 2231-3187, fax 2116-0774, or email to copyright_smo@landsd.gov.hk.
