(Question Serial No. 4264)

Head: (91) Lands Department
Subhead (No. & title): (-) Not Specified
Programme: (1) Land Administration
Controlling Officer: Director of Lands (Thomas CHAN)
Director of Bureau: Secretary for Development

Question:
How many disputes involving rural land were received by the Lands Department (LandsD) in the past five years? How long does it take on average for LandsD to resolve such a dispute? What are the estimated expenditure and manpower required for handling these disputes in 2020-21?

Asked by: Hon CHAN Tanya (LegCo internal reference no.: 230)

Reply:
The Lands Department does not keep statistics on “rural land disputes” which does not have a common definition and may cover a wide spectrum of scenarios.
